SYNCHRONOUS COURSES

Typically require you sign into classes virtually via Webex, Zoom, Canvas, or Blackboard during specific times. Participation can be in real-time like chat, telephone, podcasts or video conferencing. Synchronous courses at Rutgers-Newark have times assigned to them.

ASYNCHRONOUS COURSES

These classes will not have days and times and are listed as "Hours by Arrangement". Instructors provide materials, lectures, tests, and assignments that can be accessed at any time, at your own pace, within a given timeframe.
