Fall 2020
Email: pompeia@newark.rutgers.edu
Availability: Sunday 10:00 AM-11:30 AM and by appointment via WebEx at all other times.

Welcome to the class! This course covers early medieval European history from the decline of the Roman Empire to the year 1000. The topics that will be covered include the collapse of the western half of the Roman Empire, the creation of barbarian successor states, the dawn of feudalism, the foundations of Islam and the rise of the Islamic Caliphate, the survival of the eastern half of the Roman Empire (Byzantium), the rise and fall of the Carolingian Empire and the establishment of new European states in the 10th century.

Learning Outcomes
After taking this course, students will be able to:
- read critically and interpret primary sources
- interpret history using both primary sources and modern authors
- communicate historical knowledge and interpretation in written form
- demonstrate an understanding of historical methods (i.e. students will be able to think like a historian)

Readings
We will be covering hundreds of years of history over the course of the semester, so it is necessary that you keep up with the readings. The readings are also essential for you to be able to complete your journal entries.

There is one required textbook for the course: Chris Wickham, The Inheritance of Rome: Illuminating the Dark Ages, 400-1000
You are also required to read both primary and secondary source documents found online. The exact title of each document and its web link is listed below. These readings are also posted on Blackboard. Each student is responsible for obtaining the documents off the internet or Blackboard.

Class meeting
Because this an asynchronous class, there will be no regular class meetings. However, this course was originally scheduled to meet Sunday mornings; therefore, I will be available via Webex every Sunday between 10:00 AM to 11:30 AM to discuss the material, answer any questions you may have or just chat! If this day and time is inconvenient for you, we can schedule another meeting at a different time.

Midterm and Final Exams
There will be two exams in this course – a midterm and final. These exams will be essay-based and accessible to you one week prior to the exam’s due date. Exams must be uploaded into Blackboard once they are completed. I cannot accept exams via email.

Short Writing Assignments
You will be writing two short assignment during the course of the semester containing at least 900 words (at least 4 pages). The instructions for these assignments are found in Blackboard. The assignments must be uploaded into Blackboard once they are completed. I cannot accept assignments via email.

Journals
Every Sunday morning I will be posting questions in the “Journals” section of Blackboard based on the readings and videos for the week. After you have read, watched and reviewed the materials for the week you will write an entry into your journal responding to my questions. Please have your journal entry complete by Saturday at 12:00 PM.

Journal entries should be reflections on the readings, videos and the course. In your journal entry, you should respond to my questions as thoroughly as possible. All journal entries are personal and private; I will be the only person who will read them. Your classmates will not have any access to them. Your journal entries should be at least 300 words. I may ask you follow-up questions on your journal entries, so please make sure you check for my comments/questions and respond to them.

Academic Integrity/Behavior
Rutgers expects and requires all its students to act with honesty and integrity and respect the rights of others in carrying out all academic assignments. Plagiarism is a serious and punishable offense and will not be tolerated. Cases of plagiarism will immediately be sent to the appropriate college dean for review. You are responsible for familiarizing yourself with Rutgers policy on plagiarism at http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/academic-integrity-policy/ for more information.

All students are required to sign the Rutgers Honor Code Pledge. To receive credit, every assignment must have your signature under the following phrase: “On my honor, I have neither received nor given any unauthorized assistance on this assignment.”

Accommodation and Support Statement
Rutgers University Newark (RU-N) is committed to the creation of an inclusive and safe learning environment for all students and the University as a whole. RU-N has identified the following resources to further the mission of access and support:

For Individuals with Disabilities: The Office of Disability Services (ODS) is responsible for the determination of appropriate accommodations for students who encounter barriers due to disability. Once a student has completed the ODS process (registration, initial appointment, and submitted documentation) and reasonable accommodations are determined to be necessary and appropriate, a Letter of Accommodation (LOA) will be provided. The LOA must be given to each course instructor by the student and followed up with a discussion. This should be done as early in the semester as possible as accommodations are not retroactive. More information can be found at ods.rutgers.edu. Contact ODS at (973)353-5375 or via email at ods@newark.rutgers.edu.

For Individuals who are Pregnant: The Office of Title IX and ADA Compliance is available to assist with any concerns or potential accommodations related to pregnancy. Students may contact the Office of Title IX and ADA Compliance at (973) 353-1906 or via email at TitleIX@newark.rutgers.edu.

For Absence Verification: The Office of the Dean of Students can provide assistance for absences related to religious observance, emergency or unavoidable conflict (e.g., illness, personal or family emergency, etc.). Students should refer to University Policy 10.2.7 for information about expectations and responsibilities. The Office of the Dean of Students can be contacted by calling (973) 353-5063 or emailing deanofstudents@newark.rutgers.edu.

For Individuals with temporary conditions/injuries: The Office of the Dean of Students can assist students who are experiencing a temporary condition or injury (e.g., broken or sprained limbs, concussions, or recovery from surgery). Students experiencing a temporary condition or injury should submit a request using the following link: https://temporaryconditions.rutgers.edu.

For English as a Second Language (ESL): The Program in American Language Studies (PALS) can support students experiencing difficulty in courses due to English as a Second Language (ESL) and can be reached by emailing PALS@newark.rutgers.edu to discuss potential supports.

For Gender or Sex-Based Discrimination or Harassment: The Office of Title IX and ADA Compliance can assist students who are experiencing any form of gender or sex-based discrimination or harassment, including sexual assault, sexual harassment, relationship violence, or stalking. Students can report an incident to the Office of Title IX and ADA Compliance by calling (973) 353-1906 or emailing TitleIX@newark.rutgers.edu. Incidents may also be reported by using the following link: tinyurl.com/RUNReportingForm. For more information, students should refer to the University’s Student Policy Prohibiting Sexual Harassment, Sexual Violence, Relationship Violence, Stalking and Related Misconduct located at http://compliance.rutgers.edu/title-ix/about-title-ix/title-ix-policies/.

For support related to interpersonal violence: The Office for Violence Prevention and Victim Assistance can provide any student with confidential support. The office is a confidential resource and does not have an obligation to report information to the University’s Title IX Coordinator. Students can contact the office by calling (973) 353-1918 or emailing run.vpva@rutgers.edu. There is also a confidential text-based line available to students; students can text (973) 339-0734 for support.

For Crisis and Concerns: The Campus Awareness Response and Education (CARE) Team works with students in crisis to develop a support plan to address personal situations that might impact their academic performance. Students, faculty and staff may contact the CARE Team by using the following link: tinyurl.com/RUNCARE or emailing careteam@rutgers.edu.

For Stress, Worry, or Concerns about Well-being: The Counseling Center has confidential therapists available to support students. Students should reach out to the Counseling Center to schedule an appointment: counseling@newark.rutgers.edu or (973) 353-5805. If you are not quite ready to make an appointment with a therapist but are interested in self-help, check out TAO at Rutgers-Newark for an easy, web-based approach to self-care and support: https://tinyurl.com/RUN-TAO.
For emergencies, call 911 or contact Rutgers University Police Department (RUPD) by calling (973) 353-5111.
