CINEMA AND SOCIETY IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY
21:510:313 (28496) (Spring 2020)

This course uses cinema to examine the history of the twentieth century in the USA and Europe. In addition to looking at how films interpreted events and trends of their time and focusing on moments when cinema became a topic of general social discussion, it also traces the history of the film industry from its birth through the end of the twentieth century and analyzes major stylistic developments.

GRADING
TESTS: There will be a midterm on Mon. Mar. 9 and a final exam on Wed. May 13, 11:45-2:45pm, both consisting of a series of short essays (1/2 to 1 page). Please read the exam instructions (in the reader) very carefully before each exam.

Students are bound by the university’s academic integrity policy, which appears here: http://www.ncas.rutgers.edu/office-dean-student-affairs/academic-integrity-policy.

LECTURE QUESTIONS: At the end of each lecture, you must hand in a 3x5 card with one or two brief questions or comments on that session. Grades are based on the number of days when you attend and hand in a card; each unexcused absence will lower this score by five points. To receive credit, your card must contain a relevant question or comment. Time accrued through arriving late or leaving early is added up; eighty minutes equals one absence.

For an absence to be excused, you must provide written evidence of a valid reason, and you must turn in all excuses by the end of the final exam. Your overall course grade will fall by a half-letter for each unexcused absence starting with the fourth one. Anyone who misses eight or more sessions through any combination of excused and unexcused absences will not earn credit in this course; such students should withdraw from the class to avoid getting an F.

CLASS PARTICIPATION: Everyone is required to pay attention and to speak regularly in class, either asking questions or making relevant comments. Grading is based on how often you participate and on your level of comprehension of the day's readings and ability to analyze the course material. This grade rewards attention, so sleeping in class and using any cell phone or similar device will lower your score. Laptops are not allowed in this class.

QUIZZES: Several times during the semester, you will be quizzed on the readings and/or films assigned for that day. These quizzes will be unannounced. The lowest grade on the quizzes will not count.

Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines. If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus’ disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form on the ODS web site at: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/registration-form. For more information please contact the Office of Disability Services in the Paul Robeson Campus Center, in suite 219, by phone at 973-353-5375 or by email at odsnewark@newark.rutgers.edu.
