CINEMA AND SOCIETY IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY
21:510:313 (19172) (Fall 2015)

This writing-intensive course uses cinema to examine the history of the twentieth century in the USA and Europe. Learning goals include the ability to describe how films interpreted events and trends of their time and how the film industry and artistic styles evolved from the early years through the end of the twentieth century.

READINGS

Course reader, available only at Affordable Copies, 49 Halsey St., 973 802-1007

GRADING

TESTS: There will be a midterm on Thu. Oct. 22 and a COMPREHENSIVE final exam on Thu. Dec. 17, 3-6pm, both consisting of a series of short essays (1/2 to 1 page). Please read the exam instructions (in the reader) very carefully before each exam. All students must sign the Rutgers Honor Code Pledge.

LECTURE QUESTIONS: At the end of each lecture, you must hand in a 3x5 card with one or two brief questions or comments on that session. Grades are based on the number of days when you attend and hand in a card; each unexcused absence will lower this score by five points. To receive credit, your card must contain a relevant question or comment. For an absence to be excused, you must provide written evidence of a valid reason, and you must turn in all excuses by the end of the final exam. Your overall course grade will fall by a half-letter for each unexcused absence starting with the fourth one. Anyone who misses eight or more sessions through any combination of excused and unexcused absences will not earn credit in this course; such students should withdraw from the class to avoid getting an F.

CLASS PARTICIPATION: Everyone is required to pay attention and to speak regularly in class, either asking questions or making relevant comments. Grading is based on how often you participate and on your level of comprehension of the day's readings and ability to analyze the course material. You will get separate scores for the two halves of the semester, and your final score will be an average of the two. This grade rewards attention, so sleeping in class and using any cell phone or similar device will lower your score. Laptops are not allowed in this class.

QUIZZES: Several times during the semester, you will be quizzed on the readings and/or films assigned for that day. These quizzes will be unannounced. The lowest grade on the quizzes will not count.

PAPERS: Students will write two 3 to 5 page scene-analysis papers. See separate instructions.

Students will be required to sign the Rutgers Honor Pledge, distributed in class.
