WESTERN CIVILIZATION II
21:510:202 Sec. H7 (02180) Summer 2019

This course examines Western Civilization since 1700. The main requirements are to attend class regularly, to do every reading by the day we discuss it, and to participate in class discussions. Summer courses are intensive: we do in five weeks what would take fourteen weeks in fall or spring. You will need to allot several hours for homework each week.

READINGS

Course reader, available only at Porta Print, Affordable Copies, 33 Halsey St., 973 622-1828

Note: The reader is not available at the campus bookstore or at New Jersey Books.

GRADING

Students are bound by the university's academic integrity policy, which appears here:

<http://www.ncas.rutgers.edu/office-dean-student-affairs/academic-integrity-policy>

TESTS: There will be a midterm on Thu. July 25 and a final exam on Tue. Aug. 13. The format for these tests will be a series of short essays (1/2 to 1 page). You should read the exam instructions in the reader very carefully before each exam.

LECTURE QUESTIONS: At the end of each lecture, you must hand in one or two brief questions or comments on the material covered in the lecture. Grades are based on the number of sessions when you attend class and hand in a card; each unexcused absence will lower the attendance grade by five points. In order to receive credit, your card must contain a question or comment on the material for that session. Please bring a 3x5 card to class every time. To be excused for missing a class, you must provide written evidence of a valid reason. No excuses will be accepted after grades are turned in.

Each evening consists of two sessions of about 80 minutes each, with a break in between, so you will hand in two cards each evening. If you miss an entire evening, that is two absences. Arriving late or leaving early three times without permission equals one absence. The overall course grade will be reduced by a half letter (e.g., A to B+) for each unexcused absence starting with the fourth one. Students who miss six sessions (three full evenings) for any combination of excused and unexcused absences will not earn credit in this class and should withdraw to avoid getting an F.

CLASS PARTICIPATION: Everyone is required to participate regularly in class discussions, either by asking questions or by making relevant comments. Grading is based on how often you participate and on how well your comments or questions show your comprehension of the day's readings and ability to analyze the course material. No laptops or any other electronic devices are allowed during class.

READING QUIZZES: Several times during the semester, you will be quizzed on the readings assigned for that day. These quizzes will be unannounced. The lowest grade on the quizzes will not count.

Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation: <https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines>. If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus's disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form on the ODS web site at:

<https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/registration-form>. For more information please contact Kate Torres at (973)353-5375 or in the Office of Disability Services in the Paul Robeson Campus Center, in suite 219 or by contacting odsnewark@rutgers.edu.
