FILM AND HISTORY: 21:510:301 Sec. 01 (Fall 2020) index 17096

This course examines how historical films present history, focusing mainly on American feature films. It seeks less to list these films' inaccuracies than to identify and analyze how and why they have mythologized the past. By learning to spot films' ideologies, assumptions, strategies, and visions of the past, one can identify the evolution of modern societies' historical mythologies, values, and beliefs. The course seeks to build skills of reading comprehension and retention and critical thinking as well as the ability to analyze critically how films work.

GRADING
Students may not collaborate with each other on any quiz or exam. Students are bound by the university’s academic integrity policy, which appears here: http://www.ncas.rutgers.edu/office-dean-student-affairs/academic-integrity-policy. We will hold online sessions on Zoom on Mondays and Wednesdays from 4pm to 5:20pm.

READINGS & FILMS
The readings are posted on Canvas. There are also links to most of the films on Canvas. You are advised to print out the readings so you can underline them and make margin notes. The readings contain the answers to the quizzes and the exam questions.

TESTS: There will be an open-book take-home midterm at 4pm on Wed. Mar. 2 and an open-book take-home final exam on Wed. May 11, 11:45am-2:45pm. The format for these tests will be a series of short essays (1/2 to 1 page). Exam instructions will be distributed by email before each exam.

LECTURE QUESTIONS: After each session, you must email me one or two brief questions or comments on the material covered in that session. Grades are based on the number of sessions when you complete this assignment; each time missed will lower this grade by five points. All questions and/or comments must be in within 2 hours of the end of the session.

READING QUIZZES: The quizzes are posted on Canvas. You will turn in a total of eight quizzes: four sessions done before the midterm and four done after the midterm. You may choose which eight sessions you wish to submit quizzes for. The quizzes must be turned in by 4pm on the day of the session that quiz covers, and late quizzes will not be accepted. Each quiz must fit in one page, maximum.

DANA library also owns most of these films on DVD. Be sure to check the year of release as there may be other films with these titles. If you are unsure, ask me. Try to avoid directors’ cuts so that we are watching the same films. Try to watch the optional films – at least part of them. Knowing them will help you on the midterm and final.

Accommodation and Support Statement

Rutgers University Newark (RU-N) is committed to the creation of an inclusive and safe learning environment for all students and the University as a whole. RU-N has identified the following resources to further the mission of access and support:

For Individuals with Disabilities: The Office of Disability Services (ODS) is responsible for the determination of appropriate accommodations for students who encounter barriers due to disability. Once a student has completed the ODS process (registration, initial appointment, and submitted documentation) and reasonable accommodations are determined to be necessary and appropriate, a Letter of Accommodation (LOA) will be provided. The LOA must be given to each course instructor by the student and followed up with a discussion. This should be done as early in the semester as possible as accommodations are not retroactive. More information can be found at ods.rutgers.edu. Contact ODS at (973)353-5375 or via email at ods@newark.rutgers.edu.
For Individuals who are Pregnant: The Office of Title IX and ADA Compliance is available to assist with any concerns or potential accommodations related to pregnancy. Students may contact the Office of Title IX and ADA Compliance at (973) 353-1906 or via email at TitleIX@newark.rutgers.edu.

For Absence Verification: The Office of the Dean of Students can provide assistance for absences related to religious observance, emergency or unavoidable conflict (e.g., illness, personal or family emergency, etc.). Students should refer to University Policy 10.2.7 for information about expectations and responsibilities. The Office of the Dean of Students can be contacted by calling (973) 353-5063 or emailing deanofstudents@newark.rutgers.edu.

For Individuals with temporary conditions/injuries: The Office of the Dean of Students can assist students who are experiencing a temporary condition or injury (e.g., broken or sprained limbs, concussions, or recovery from surgery). Students experiencing a temporary condition or injury should submit a request using the following link: https://temporaryconditions.rutgers.edu.

For English as a Second Language (ESL): The Program in American Language Studies (PALS) can support students experiencing difficulty in courses due to English as a Second Language (ESL) and can be reached by emailing PALS@newark.rutgers.edu to discuss potential supports.

For Gender or Sex-Based Discrimination or Harassment: The Office of Title IX and ADA Compliance can assist students who are experiencing any form of gender or sex-based discrimination or harassment, including sexual assault, sexual harassment, relationship violence, or stalking. Students can report an incident to the Office of Title IX and ADA Compliance by calling (973) 353-1906 or emailing TitleIX@newark.rutgers.edu. Incidents may also be reported by using the following link: tinyurl.com/RUNReportingForm. For more information, students should refer to the University’s Student Policy Prohibiting Sexual Harassment, Sexual Violence, Relationship Violence, Stalking and Related Misconduct located at http://compliance.rutgers.edu/title-ix/about-title-ix/title-ix-policies/.

For support related to interpersonal violence: The Office for Violence Prevention and Victim Assistance can provide any student with confidential support. The office is a confidential resource and does not have an obligation to report information to the University’s Title IX Coordinator. Students can contact the office by calling (973) 353-1918 or emailing run vpva@rutgers.edu. There is also a confidential text-based line available to students; students can text (973) 339-0734 for support.

For Crisis and Concerns: The Campus Awareness Response and Education (CARE) Team works with students in crisis to develop a support plan to address personal situations that might impact their academic performance. Students, faculty and staff may contact the CARE Team by using the following link: tinyurl.com/RUNCARE or emailing careteam@rutgers.edu.

For Stress, Worry, or Concerns about Well-being: The Counseling Center has confidential therapists available to support students. Students should reach out to the Counseling Center to schedule an appointment: counseling@newark.rutgers.edu or (973) 353-5805. If you are not quite ready to make an appointment with a therapist but are interested in self-help, check out TAO at Rutgers-Newark for an easy, web-based approach to self-care and support: https://tinyurl.com/RUN-TAO.

For emergencies, call 911 or contact Rutgers University Police Department (RUPD) by calling (973) 353-5111.
