HIST 287
HISTORY OF ISLAMIC CIVILIZATION, I

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is a survey of the history of Islamic civilization. In this course, we will study social, economic, and cultural aspects of the history of the Middle and Near East region, between the sixth and fifteenth centuries. The treatment of the subject will be roughly chronological, though themes such as law, science, and philosophy will recur throughout the course. In addition to lectures, the course will heavily draw upon discussion sessions, which will give students a hands-on approach to history. In these sessions, we will discuss in detail various historical problems presented in the text and lectures. We will also see different types of historical evidence and learn how they can be used for historical analysis.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:
• name and identify individuals, events, themes, and issues of major importance in the history of Islamic civilization,
• demonstrate a basic level of competence in differentiating the major periods of the history of Islamic civilization and the significance of historical context,
• recognize the importance of cause and effect in history, and discuss the significance of change and continuity over time,
• develop an understanding toward the use of historical evidence by historians and display some familiarity toward different types of evidence,
• critically analyze historical evidence and articulate a synthesis with a thesis.
REQUIRED TEXTS

• Selection of Primary Sources

All readings for this course will be available on Canvas.

GRADING AND ASSIGNMENTS

Preliminaries (Rules and Expectations):
Because this course is being conducted entirely online, all students must be able to use an internet-connected computer to access the course information system (CANVAS).

There will be a combination of synchronous and asynchronous learning in this course. All synchronous and asynchronous sessions will be clearly marked on this syllabus next to the date.

 For synchronous classes, students must have access to a camera and microphone, and they must keep their cameras on for the duration of the class, with the mics muted. If you are unable to have your camera on, please consult with the Professor.

 I understand that these are challenging times, and that there may be people present in the same room while you attend class. Family members and pets are welcome on the screen! ***

Students are responsible for completing all the assigned readings and watch, watch lectures, and view any supplementary materials included in each module.

Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty: As an academic community dedicated to the creation, dissemination, and application of knowledge, Rutgers University is committed to fostering an intellectual and ethical environment based on the principles of academic integrity. Academic integrity is essential to the success of the University's educational and research missions, and violations of academic integrity constitute serious offenses against the entire academic community. The entire Academic Integrity Policy can be found here: http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/academic-integrity-policy/

Students are required to view the Plagiarism video on Canvas and take the quiz by no later than Wednesday September 9, 2020. The video is available in the Modules section of the Canvas site for this course.

Assignments:
• There will be a series of short videos and quizzes in the module section of Canvas that you will have to complete before submitting paper 1 [Types of Sources; Why Citations Matter; Turabian Citations; Academic Integrity] Each quiz will count for half a credit point, and it will be added to your total grade for the first paper.

• Students will write ONE paper (500 words, 2 pages). The essay prompt will be posted on Canvas on Sept. 30, and the essay is due on Wednesday, Oct. 7 by 3:50 p.m. No late or email submissions will be accepted.

• Students will work in groups to discuss and annotate primary sources (total of 12 sets of sources). Please confirm with the syllabus that you are, in fact, analyzing a primary source! Students will be divided into groups of 4 and will work together throughout the semester. For the source annotations, students will use the digital tool on Canvas called Hypothesis. For each class session that includes a primary source, 2 students in the group will annotate the text, and 2 students will respond to their group mates’ commentary BEFORE the class. By the end of the course, each member of the group will have annotated 6 set of texts, and responded to their peers 6 times, for a total participation grade of 12 times.

• There will be ONE exam (midterm) in essay form. The prompt will be uploaded to canvas on Wednesday, Oct. 21, and essays will be uploaded to Canvas and due on Monday, Oct. 26 by 3:50 p.m. No late or email submissions will be accepted under any circumstances.

• Students will work in their groups to produce a final project, that they will present to the class on the last week of the semester. Each presentation will be no more than 20 minutes long. For the final projects, students will collectively create a timeline of Islamic Civilization focusing on ONE figure of Islamic history, using the digital tool Timeline JS. Students will use the assigned biographies assigned in class, or in consultation with the Professor. Students will select any biography EXCEPT FOR that of Muhammad. Each group will present on their biography. All projects must be uploaded to the Timeline by Dec. 21, 6:00 p.m.

RESOURCES, SUPPORT, AND ASSISTANCE:

Technology Resources for Students
https://coronavirus.rutgers.edu/technology-resources-for-students/
Counseling Center: The Rutgers-Newark Counseling Center provides a number of counseling and consultative services to enrolled and eligible undergraduate and graduate students. For students, if you are seeking individual or group therapy, you can expect to find a safe, supportive space to collaboratively identify and begin to change the thoughts, behaviors, and beliefs that prevent you from being your best self. http://counseling.newark.rutgers.edu

Disabilities: Rutgers welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University’s educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines. If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus’s disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form: https://webapps.rutgers.edu/student-ods/forms/registration.

Students with Temporary Conditions/Injuries: Students experiencing a temporary condition or injury that is adversely affecting their ability to fully participate in their courses should submit a request for assistance at: https://temporaryconditions.rutgers.edu.

Students Who are Pregnant: The Office of Title IX and ADA Compliance is available to assist students with any concerns or potential accommodations related to pregnancy: (973) 353-1906 or TitleIX@newark.rutgers.edu.

Gender or Sex-Based Discrimination or Harassment: Students experiencing any form of gender or sex-based discrimination or harassment, including sexual assault, sexual harassment, relationship violence, or stalking, should know that help and support are available. To report an incident, contact the Office of Title IX and ADA Compliance: (973) 353-1906 or TitleIX@newark.rutgers.edu. To submit an incident report: tinyurl.com/RUNReportingForm. To speak with a staff member who is confidential and does NOT have a reporting responsibility, contact the Office for Violence Prevention and Victim Assistance: (973) 353-1918 or run.vpva@rutgers.edu.

Food: PantryRUN, the campus food pantry, helps students who have difficulty affording enough healthy food to remain focused on their studies and stay healthy. You can find hours and information here: https://myrun.newark.rutgers.edu/pantryrun.

Writing: The Rutgers University-Newark Writing Center provides tutoring for students who want to strengthen their reading, writing, and research skills and offers individual sessions and writing workshops to all undergraduate students currently enrolled in classes on the Rutgers University-Newark campus. More details here: https://sasn.rutgers.edu/student-support/tutoring-academic-support/writing-center.
