While it’s not true we’re going to hell in a hand basket, it is true that as a nation we face staggering problems—ones more serious than ever in our divisive and often ineffectual political climate.

Still, just because our problems are serious doesn’t mean we can’t enjoy ourselves in this class: We’ll read provocative books and articles, enjoy spirited (but civil) debate, and (I hope) learn from one another.

Assigned Reading:

American Constitutional Law: The Bill of Rights and Subsequent Amendments, Vol. 11/ Rossum & Tarr

Bryan Stevenson, Just Mercy, Spiegal & Grau, New York

Carol Anderson, One Person, No Vote & The Impact of Voter Suppression, 2018

Note: Cases we will brief in class and articles I assign are easily accessible on the Internet.

Grading

Class participation and attendance.............. 25%
Mid-term Exam........................................ 35%
Final Exam ............................................40%

SOME NO-NOs: Attendance is absolutely crucial, and you’ll be docked a full grade for every three absences. Plus, I’m heartless: my rule applies no matter how tear-jerking your excuse! (Grr-r-r-r) Also, puh-leeze do not use your electronic gadgets during class (except laptops for typing class notes).

HOW TO TRACK ME DOWN: That’s not hard. My office is on the seventh floor (725), and I will be there on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 8:30 - 9:30 a.m., and from 11:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. Please drop by whenever you have a question or just want to chat. You can also reach me via e-mail: eahull47@hotmail.com, or by phone: (973) 353-5105.
