

INTRO TO CARIBBEAN STUDIES

Fall 2017 - 21:014:113:01

ABOUT THIS COURSE

The Caribbean – Crossroads of the World – is more than a tropical region filled with palm trees, exotic people and resorts. In this discussion-based interactive course, you will explore the history of the Caribbean, its geography, cultural productions (music/film/food/religion) and its intellectual traditions. Together, we will reflect on major issues including: colonialism; economic intra and interdependence; culture and language; regional, national and ethnic identity; and independence. We will also connect the events of the past to current events to help explain the political, social and economic status of the countries of the Caribbean and their relationship to and with the Americas, Europe, Asia and the Middle East.

Emphasis will be given to understanding contributions of Caribbean Studies to the exploration of contemporary issues in our interconnected world.

Course Learning Goals

- ✚ Identify and describe the relevance of major actors, events and ideas that have shaped Caribbean history
- ✚ Identify Caribbean nations on a map and differentiate according to colonial heritage, language and ethnicity
- ✚ Describe the impact of colonialism, globalization and neocolonialism on the Caribbean's socio-economic and political status
- ✚ Identify and explain the strategies employed by indigenous and Caribbean people to undermine social, economic and political oppression
- ✚ Improve research and critical thinking skills, as applied to Caribbean Studies, through engagement with interdisciplinary scholarship and analysis of primary sources
- ✚ Develop writing skills through analytical and reflective essays and develop greater familiarity with the interactive collaborative software, Kaltura and Padlet
- ✚ Demonstrate the necessary skill sets enabling you to interact effectively with your peers

Communication Policy

You are responsible for reading all of my posted announcements. You should log into our course site daily to check for new announcements.

Please contact me via email at hyacinth.miller@rutgers.edu. I will usually respond to email messages within 24 to 48 hours (except for weekends).

Attendance and Participation Policy

I designed this course to be an interactive learning experience. Discussion of readings comprises a significant portion of every student's final course grade. You must complete the required reading BEFORE class to enable informed participation. Participation grades are calculated from both the quality and quantity of your classroom participation.

Because of the nature of the class design, you should attend every class session. Lack of participation and attendance will equal lower final course grades. If you must miss a class, you are responsible for completing any in class assignment for that day and for obtaining any important class related information from that day.

If you are going to miss a class, within 24 hours of your absence, the University requires you to use the University absence-reporting website <https://sims.rutgers.edu/ssra/> to indicate the date/reason for your absence. Be sure to advise me of a religious-related absence.

Please keep in mind that using the reporting system does not mean that your absence is automatically considered “excused” AND/OR sending an email stating that you cannot attend the class does not constitute an excused absence either. I expect you to inform me about an absence in person before or immediately after the absence takes place. I require valid documentation to excuse an absence.

Unexcused Absence = Final Grade – 2 points
Three Late Arrivals = 1 Absence
Four unexcused absences = F
Improper/Abusive use of technology = 1 Absence and I will dismiss you from the class if the behavior continues.

Late Submission Policy

Late assignments will lose FIVE points per day until submitted.

Time Commitment

This course includes considerable time spent doing readings, assignments and other work toward course mastery. To be successful in this course, guidelines estimate that you will need to spend at least three to six hours on coursework per week. This is calculated based on the college standard requirement of approximately three hours of work each week per credit-hour of the course. Depending on our individual backgrounds and schedules, some Units may require more time, some less.

Schedule regular study/assignment times in your calendar. Studies show that the more hours you put in, the better the work output. Students who can only put in two to three hours per week are not as likely to get top grades as those students who can study at least six or more hours per week.

Dropping or Withdrawing from the Course

In order to drop or withdraw from this course, it is not sufficient to stop posting assignments or contributing to discussion. You must do so formally through the Registrar’s office. It is your responsibility to complete all forms, and if you do not do so, I must assign a grade of F at the end of the semester.

Required technological skills

Ability to use Blackboard

Technical Problems

If there is a technical glitch on Blackboard, e-mail the assignment to me at hyacinth.miller@rutgers.edu, BEFORE the deadline.

In an online environment, there is always a possibility of technical issues (e.g., lost connection, hardware or software failure). Many of these can be resolved relatively quickly, but if you wait until the last minute to do/submit an assignment, the chances of these glitches affecting your success increase. Please plan appropriately. If a problem occurs, it is essential you take immediate action to resolve the problem.

Direct technical questions to the Student Help Desk at: help@newark.rutgers.edu. You can also call them at 973-353-5083, or drop-in, Hill Hall 109. This link directs you to the Newark Computing Services Web site <http://ncs.newark.rutgers.edu/hd>

Required equipment

Computer, internet access, webcam with microphone OR headphones with microphone; software that can save a file in the format of Microsoft Word or PDF.

Academic Integrity

Students at Rutgers University are expected to maintain the highest ethical standards. The consequences of academic dishonesty, including cheating and plagiarism, are very serious. Rutgers' academic integrity policy is at academicintegrity.rutgers.edu. When you submit an exam or assignment, you need to abide by the honor pledge of "On my honor, I have neither received nor given any unauthorized assistance on this examination (assignment)."

Course Content

The four course units are: (1) Indigenous Peoples, Colonization and Slavery; (2) Emancipation, Decolonization and Independence; (3) Caribbean Political Movements; and (4) Migration and Globalization.

Course Schedule and Assignment Due Dates
