INTRO TO CARIBBEAN STUDIES
21:014:113:90| ONLINE ONLY COURSE
Spring 2019 – January 22 – May 6

About This Course

The Caribbean – Crossroads of the World – is more than a tropical region filled with palm trees, exotic people and resorts. In this course, you will explore the history of the Caribbean, its demography, socio-cultural productions (music/film/food/religion), and its intellectual tradition. Together, we reflect on major issues including colonialism, slavery and sugarcane; economic intra and interdependence; regional, national and ethnic identity; and independence. We connect the events of the past to current events to help explain the political, social and economic status of the countries of the Caribbean and their relationship to and with the Americas, Europe, Asia and the Middle East.

Course Outcome Goals

- Explain the relevance of major actors, events and ideas that have shaped the contemporary Caribbean
- Identify Caribbean nations and capitals on a map and differentiate according to colonial heritage, language and ethnicities
- Explain the strategies employed by indigenous, formerly enslaved and indentured laborers to both contest and undermine social, economic and political oppression
- Describe the impact of colonialism, neocolonialism and globalization on the Caribbean's socio-economic and political status
- Evaluate the prospects of further Caribbean (re)development in the 21st Century by assessing challenges and opportunities
- Develop writing skills through analytical and reflective essays

Academic Integrity

Rutgers University expects students to maintain the highest ethical standards. The consequences of academic dishonesty, including cheating and plagiarism, are very serious. When you submit an exam or assignment, you need to abide by the honor pledge of "On my honor, I have neither received nor given any unauthorized assistance on this examination (assignment)."

Plagiarism means copying another person's written work and presenting it as your own. This covers all submitted work in this course. Copying another's work will get you an F in the course and a meeting with the Dean for disciplinary action. The University takes plagiarism very seriously as do I

Rutgers' academic integrity policy is here <http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/academic-integrity-policy/>

Communication Policy

You are responsible for reading all of my posted announcements. You should log into our course site daily to check for new announcements.

Please contact me via email at hyacinth.miller@rutgers.edu. I will usually respond to email messages within 24 to 48 hours (except for weekends).

When sending me an email, please be sure to address the email as Dear Professor Miller, Dear Ms. Miller or Dear Professor. I WILL NOT RESPOND TO EMAIL MESSAGES THAT BEGIN WITH "Hey", "Yo." I will delete messages with no greeting, because I will assume it is SPAM.

Always include the subject and course name in the subject line because I teach more than one class per semester.

Course Delivery

This is a fully online course with online activities, assignments, and lectures. We will cover 14 weeks of a regular course within six weeks and upon successful completion of the course, you will receive the same three credits. Your engagement with the course is critical. I can monitor your activities on the course Web page as Blackboard creates an electronic record of each student's participation.

Late Submission Policy

No late submissions accepted unless extenuating circumstances and prior approval from me.

Time Commitment

This course includes considerable time spent doing readings, assignments and other work toward course mastery. To be successful in this course, guidelines estimate that you will need to spend at least seven to ten hours of coursework per week.

- ✚ Watching Instructor Video Lectures and other Multimedia: up to 2 hours
- ✚ Reading Assignments: up to 3 hours
- ✚ Various Weekly Assignments: up to 3 hours
- ✚ Composition of Discussion Post and Reply to Peers: up to 2 hours

Depending on your individual backgrounds and schedules, some Units may require more time, some less.

This course has a schedule with deadlines. This course is NOT self-paced. Do not try to 'save-up' all course work to the last day of each unit. Doing work every day works best.

Dropping or Withdrawing from the Course

In order to drop or withdraw from this course, it is not sufficient to stop posting assignments or contributing to discussion. You must do so formally through the Registrar's office. It is your responsibility to complete all forms. If not, I must assign you an F grade at the end of the semester. You can review this information using this link <https://registrar.newark.rutgers.edu/registrar-spring-academic-calendar-0#add-drop>

Required technological skills

Ability to use Blackboard and Kaltura

Technical Problems

Direct ALL technical questions to the Student Help Desk at help@newark.rutgers.edu. You can also call them at 973-353-5083, or drop-in to their office in Hill Hall 109. This link directs you to the Newark Computing Services Web site <http://ncs.newark.rutgers.edu/hd>

If there is a technical glitch on Blackboard, email the assignment to me at hyacinth.miller@rutgers.edu, BEFORE the deadline.

In an online environment, there is always a possibility of technical issues (e.g., lost connection, hardware or software failure). Many of these can be resolved relatively quickly, but if you wait until the last minute to do/submit an assignment, the chances of these glitches affecting your success increase. Please plan appropriately. If a problem occurs, it is essential you take immediate action to resolve the problem.
