
Dr. Chapdelaine is an Assistant Professor of Women’s and Gender history and African history at Duquesne University. Her research focuses on gender, human trafficking, child labor and human rights. The Persistence of Slavery: An Economic History of Child Trafficking (2021) explores child trafficking, slavery, pawning, and marriages in Nigeria.

Register for webinar link at go.rutgers.edu/Chapdelaine

Hosted by the Departments of History and African American and African Studies with the Women’s and Gender Studies Program at Rutgers University-Newark.