Course Requirements:

- Your grade for this course will be calculated as follows:
midterm exam - 30%
project - 20%
final exam - 50%
- Class lectures and discussions are based on the assumption that you have done the assigned reading beforehand, and are prepared to participate. You will get much more out of this course, and you will be better prepared for the exams, if you attend every class.
- Please show courtesy to your classmates and to the professor: be in the classroom before 10:00 am so that we may begin on time; latecomers create distracting interruptions, so consider missing the class if you must be more than a few minutes late; turn off cell phones, pagers, etc., before entering the classroom.
- Do not ask for make-up exams or deadline extensions unless you can provide documentation of a serious medical emergency, a court order, or the equivalent.
- Cheating and plagiarism violate the fundamental values of a University, and will be dealt with strictly and swiftly.
- There are very helpful resources available to you on campus if you are having personal or learning problems; consult the Rutgers website or your professor.
- Your professor's goal is for every student to learn, to succeed, and to enjoy this course. PLEASE make an appointment, or e-mail me, if you have questions or problems, or if you want to go into any topic in greater depth. Talk to me after class, or e-mail me, and we will find a time to meet which fits your schedule. I look forward to getting to know you!
